

Dear Pet Owner,

65° is too hot!

Don't let your dog suffer from heatstroke, brain damage, exhaustion, dehydration, or even death. Leaving your dog in the car, even with the windows rolled down for a brief time can mean serious trouble.

Please leave your dog at home!

Dear Pet Owner,

65° is too hot!

Don't let your dog suffer from heatstroke, brain damage, exhaustion, dehydration, or even death. Leaving your dog in the car, even with the windows rolled down for a brief time can mean serious trouble.

Please leave your dog at home!

Dear Pet Owner,

65° is too hot!

Don't let your dog suffer from heatstroke, brain damage, exhaustion, dehydration, or even death. Leaving your dog in the car, even with the windows rolled down for a brief time can mean serious trouble.

Please leave your dog at home!

Dear Pet Owner,

65° is too hot!

Don't let your dog suffer from heatstroke, brain damage, exhaustion, dehydration, or even death. Leaving your dog in the car, even with the windows rolled down for a brief time can mean serious trouble.

Please leave your dog at home!

